

Flanked by Secret Service agent and Mayor Frank Logue, Mrs. Joan Mondale leaves Tweed-New Haven Airport this morning to begin daylong tour of city's arts attractions. Also in the party are Mrs. Logue and East Haven Mayor Anthony Proto. (Staff Photo by Gene Gorklick)

Joan Mondale Arrives For Arts Tour Of City

By SANDRA AHEARN
Staff Reporter

Joan Mondale began her one-day whirlwind tour of New Haven's cultural life this morning under a light drizzle.

Following a brief meeting with New Haven and East Haven city officials at Tweed-New Haven airport, the wife of Vice President Walter Mondale visited the Welfare Office on Bassett Street to view a mural being painted by two city CETA workers.

Because the press was kept at a distance by the numerous Secret Service agents traveling with Mrs. Mondale, her conversations with the artists were not audible.

According to an official of her entourage, Mrs. Mondale selected the places and events she wanted to see in New Haven. She came to the city on the invitation of

Touring Town

Mrs. Mondale, Mayor Logue and Dr. Richard Granger, master of Morse College, arrive at the college Thursday to view 'Lipstick,' a sculpture on the college grounds. Above, a CETA arts performer serenades the entourage at another stop on Mrs. Mondale's tour.

(Staff Photos by Steve Silk)

J. Courier
5/12/78

Mrs. Joan Mondale To View City's Art

"Company's coming," said Mayor Frank Logue Wednesday as he announced that Mrs. Joan Mondale, wife of Vice President Walter Mondale, will be visiting the city's cultural resources on May 25.

uled to spend the entire day in New Haven beginning with a visit to the Audubon Street Art Center, including the Creative Arts Workshop, the Neighborhood Music School and the Foundry Building.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Mondale will view the CET mimes, musicians and dancers on the New Haven Green. She will then visit the Lee High School CET mural and the Children's Museum.

Mrs. Mondale will also visit the Yale Art Gallery, the Mellon British Art Center and the Claes Oldenburger Lipstick sculpture at Mors College at Yale.

In the evening, Mrs. Mondale will be the guest of honor at a fund-raising event at Stage Two at the Long Wharf Theater and will finish the day attending "Macbeth" at the Long Wharf Theater.

Mrs. Mondale is sched-